

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
FOOD SAFETY AND INSPECTION SERVICE
OFFICE OF POLICY, PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT, AND EVALUATION

(37 - 25)

RECOMMENDED: _____
DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR,
OFFICE OF POLICY, PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT, AND EVALUATION
DATE

CONCURRED: _____
DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR,
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT
DATE

APPROVED: Approved 10/25/00
ADMINISTRATOR,
FOOD SAFETY AND INSPECTION SERVICE
DATE

The function of the Office of Policy, Program Development and Evaluation (OPPDE) is to develop and recommend all domestic and international policy for the Agency, develop and review product, process, and technology performance standards; evaluate labeling, and additives used by industry; provide statistical support for the Agency; develop and evaluate programs, inspection methods, systems, and techniques; plan and coordinate FSIS cooperative activities to assist states in administering meat, poultry, and egg products inspection programs; and provide leadership in identifying food safety concerns and solutions associated with animal production activities.

SUPERSEDES CHART DATED 2/11/99